Some NASA directives temporarily unavailable

Several NASA directives are temporarily unavailable from the NASA Online Directives Information System (NODIS) Library while they undergo editorial changes. These directives should be accessible again by June 5. Those who need access to one of the unavailable directives may download the redlined version at: http://nodisdms.gsfc.nasa.gov/dir_homepage/Revisions_A.cfm.

Venus viewing party June 8

In what scientists are calling a major celestial event, the silhouette of the planet Venus will cross the Sun's face on June 8. A "Transit of Venus Viewing Party" will be from 5:30-7:30 a.m. on the day of the event in the U.S. Space & Rocket Center west parking lot. Several experts will speak, including astronomer Bill Cooke. There is no cost but participants must register by June 3. To register, call 544-5812.
