

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, August 15

1997

American Express Gets Contract To Provide NASA Travel Services

American Express has been awarded the NASA-wide travel contract and will begin providing travel services to Marshall on Sept. 2. The Marshall Travel Office will close at noon on Aug. 29 for the transition of travel records and installation of equipment. It will reopen on Sept. 2. Tickets issued by Four Seasons for travel through Sept. 3, must be picked up by noon Aug. 29. American Express will present an overview of travel services 1 - 2:30 p.m. on Aug. 25 in Morris Auditorium.

---

Red Cross
Blood Drive
8 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.
Fri. in Bldg. 4752

---

Mir Internal Spacewalk Briefing To Air 1 p.m. Mon. on NASA TV

A planned internal spacewalk by Mir space station cosmonauts will be the subject of a briefing to air at 1 p.m. CST Monday on NASA TV. Mir 24 Commander Anatoly Solovyev and Flight Engineer Pavel Vinogradov will conduct the spacewalk, currently scheduled for Wednesday, to reconnect power cables in the damaged Spektr module of Mir.