

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Monday, August 25

1997

Tues. is Last Day to Make Reservations for MMA Meeting

The Marshall Management Association will hold its last meeting of the 1996-97 year 5 p.m. Thursday at the Picnic Pavilion. The deadline for reservations is Tuesday. The program will include the presentation of this year's college scholarships. Dress is casual. The cost is $15, payable at the meeting. Contact: John Cather via e-mail or at 4-1743.

Dr. Wayne Littles to Appear on APTV's 'For the Record' Show 6:30 p.m. Mon.

Mayor Spencer to Speak At Women's Equality Day Program 9 a.m. Tues. in Morris

Technology Transfer to Hold Patent Workshops Tues. at Center

Technology Management and Intellectual Property Workshops will be held Tuesday 9 - 11 a.m. in Bldg. 4610, Room 3053, and 1 - 3 p.m. in Bldg. 4487, Room A219S. The Southern Technology Applications Center will conduct the workshops for the Technology Transfer Office. Workshops will cover patent numbers, federal lab rankings, technology partnerships, trends in licensing, and a plan to implement technology management at Marshall Contact: Chris Bramon, 4-2800, or Larry Gagliano, 4-7175.

Blue Cross/ Blue Shield Rep. Here 9 - 11 a.m. Wed. in Bldg. 4202, Room B-105