

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, August 26

1997

CFC Activities Begin Wed. With Executive Committee Bus Tour

The 1997 Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) to raise money for local charities will be held Sept. 29 - Oct. 3. A bus tour of this year's selected charities is set for Wednesday for members of the CFC Executive Committee. The bus will leave from Bldg. 4203 at 8:15 a.m. and return at 11:30 p.m. The tour will include the American Cancer Society, the Family Services Center and the Art Council. Tours for employees are planned for Sept. 15 - 26.

Tues. is Deadline for MMA Meeting Reservations

Blue Cross/ Blue Shield Rep. Here 9 - 11 a.m. Wed. in Bldg. 4202, Room B-105

Space Society Holds Lecture on Fusion Propulsion 7 p.m. Wed.

"Fusion Propulsion: How to Get to Mars in Just Weeks" will be the topic of a lecture 7 - 8:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Huntsville/Madison County Library. William Emrich of Marshall's Advanced Concepts Office will be the speaker. The lecture is sponsored by the Huntsville L-5 Society, a chapter of the National Space Society, and is open to the public. Contact: Ronnie Lajoie, 461-3064 or 721-1083.

Volunteers Needed to Work NASA Day at A&M on Nov. 8

The Equal Employment Opportunity Office is coordinating High School Senior Day/NASA Day at Alabama A&M. It will be held 8 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8, in conjunction with the A&M vs. Tuskegee football game. NASA employees and A&M and Tuskegee alumni are needed to help distribute information about Marshall and NASA during the event. Contact: Alice Sams, 4-0374, or Willie Love, 4-0088.

Mars Pathfinder Briefing to Air at Noon Wed. on NASA TV