

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, August 4

1998

Pre-Retirement Planning Seminar Continues Aug. 5-6 at Marshall

Marshall's annual Pre-retirement Planning seminar is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 5, and Thursday, Aug. 6 in Morris Auditorium, Bldg. 4200. MSFC Form 59 is not required for the seminar, although attendees should notify supervisors, register with an administrative officer and sign a class roster the day of attendance. All Marshall employees and spouses are invited. Contact: Edwina Bressette, 4-8115

---

Marshall's Summer Scholars will be Featured 5:30 a.m. Wed. on Ch. 19

Marshall's Summer Scholars Internship Program will be highlighted at 5:30 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 5 during the 'Mornin' Folks' show on channel 19. Guests on the show include Charles Scales, Equal Opportunity director at Marshall, and three Huntsville-area program participants.

---

Marshall Engineer to Speak Wed. At the U.S. Space & Rocket Center

As part of NASA's 40th anniversary celebration, George Harsh, an aerospace engineer at Marshall, will conduct two 15-minute presentations set for 2 and 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 5, at the U.S. Space & Rocket Center. The "storytelling" sessions, coordinated by Marshall's Speakers Bureau, will be conducted each Wednesday during August. Bob Schwinghamer, associate director (technical) is scheduled to speak Aug. 12.