Clinton Praises Accomplishments, Efforts of Federal Employees

In a recent letter to federal employees, President Bill Clinton expressed his appreciation for a job well done. He wrote, "I want all of you to know how proud I am of your hard work and accomplishments . . . I believe our nation will enter the new century stronger, more confident, and more capable than ever before . . . because of the energy and talent of each of you -- the men and women of the federal government."
