

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, February 9

1999

Sen. Shelby staffer and state legislators here Tuesday

Reid Cavnar, state director of Sen. Richard Shelby's office, will join State Senators Tom Butler and Jeff Enfinger of Madison County on Tuesday for a visit to the Marshall Center. Following a Center overview briefing, the group will be briefed on Marshall's space research and technology, space transportation propulsion, education programs and technology transfer. They will tour Marshall's Microgravity Development Laboratory, International Space Station mockup, Environmental Control Life Support Systems and Global Hydrology and Climate Center.

New bond honoring King to be presented at seminar Tuesday

As part of this month's Black History Celebration, John Helmke of the U.S. Treasury Department will present the new I series savings bond honoring Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. during a brown bag lunch seminar Tuesday. Helmke will brief employees on savings bonds 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. in Morris Auditorium. All Marshall employees and contractors are invited.

Toastmasters mtg.
11:30 a.m. Tuesday,
Bldg. 4610, cafeteria
conference room

AFGE meeting Tues.
11:30 a.m., Bldg.
4200, room P-106

Safety shoe van here
8 a.m.-2 p.m. Wed.,
southwest end of Bldg. 4471

'98 Astronaut Candidate Class to visit Center Tuesday, Wednesday

The 1998 Astronaut Candidate Class will visit the Marshall Center Tuesday and Wednesday. The group will visit the U.S. Space & Rocket Center Tuesday, followed by a fish fry dinner at 5 p.m. in Marshall's Bldg. 4203 cafeteria. Center Director Art Stephenson will welcome the astronaut candidates Wednesday prior to a Center overview briefing. The group also will be briefed on Space Shuttle Projects, Safety and Mission Assurance and the Space Transportation Program at Marshall. Facility visits include the Productivity Enhancement Complex, Microgravity Development Laboratory and Cold Flow Propulsion Systems Test Facilities.