

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Monday, Jan. 3

2000

Second X-34 rocket plane reaches assembly milestone

Assembly of the second of NASA's three X-34 rocket planes reached a major milestone in late December with the attachment of its composite wing to its fuselage at Orbital Sciences Corp. in Dulles, Va. Orbital is building and will operate the three experimental robot planes under contract to Marshall.

Writing workshop
Jan. 10-11 and
Jan. 12-13.
Register via AdminSTAR

Fed employees' Thrift Savings Plan Open Season runs through Jan. 31

Marshall Activities offers classes to promote fitness

Marshall Activities is offering three series of classes that may help you keep those New Year's resolutions. Smoke Stoppers, a stop smoking class, will meet from 1-2 p.m. Jan. 11 at Bldg. 4752. The LEARN Program for Weight Control will begin Jan. 25 for 10 weeks. And all fitness classes are back on schedule. For more information, visit the NASA Exchange Web site on "Inside Marshall or call 544-7570.

Fellowship Program applications due Friday

Nomination paperwork to apply for the NASA Administrator's Fellowship Program is due Friday. For eligibility and application requirements, call 544-7527.

Marshall early out authority through
Sept. 30, 2000.
Call 544-8115