

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, Jan. 16

2001

Expect Arsenal gate delays during exercise this week

The U.S. Army at Redstone Arsenal will conduct an exercise Tuesday through Thursday to ensure appropriate response to increased national or international tensions or a real-world incident of terrorism. This exercise will result in probable delays at the gates and may include checks of vehicle interiors. Be prepared to show proof of insurance and a current picture identification.

---

Open season enrollment in Thrift Savings Plan ends Jan. 31

---

Blue Cross/Blue Shield rep, 8:30-10:30 a.m. Tues., Bldg. 4200, room 306

Volunteers needed for Kids Count Expo Feb. 3-4 at VBC

Volunteers are needed for the WHNT-19 Kids Count Expo 2001 Feb. 3-4 at the Von Braun Center. Saturday hours are 9 a.m.-5 p.m. and Sunday from noon-5 p.m. Two people are needed for each hour shift. To volunteer, send an e-mail to Rosa Kilpatrick by Wednesday.

---

Supplier diversity seminar to be presented Friday

Socioeconomic Procurement as a Business Imperative" will be from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. Friday in Bldg. 4200, room G13-D. This seminar is designed to create awareness and support for the inclusion of Small Disadvantaged Business firms in every aspect of contracting and procurement. Civil servants may register via AdminSTAR.

---

Purchase tickets to Carolyn Griner's retirement reception through admin officers