

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, Jan. 19

2001

Area schools compete in Future City Competition Friday

Twenty area schools will compete in the National Engineer's Week Future City Competition beginning at 8:30 a.m. Friday in Morris Auditorium. Students' futuristic city models will be on display in the Bldg. 4200 lobby. The competition is designed to foster science, math and engineering through hands-on, real world applications.

Blood drive 8:30 a.m.- 1 p.m., Friday, Bldg. 4752

Center Director's all-hands meeting, 8:30-10 a.m., Tuesday, Bldg. 4610 cafeteria

Starship 2040 exhibit open to employees Jan. 25-26

The Marshall Center's newest traveling exhibit, Starship 2040, will be open for employee viewing next week, prior to its Alabama debut at the University of South Alabama in Mobile early next month. The exhibit showcases future space transportation technology. Starship 2040 will be open to employees from 3-4:30 p.m. Jan. 25 and 8 a.m.-2 p.m. Jan. 26 in the north loop of Bldg. 4203.

Use Just-In-Time desktop system to order supplies

Office supplies are now ordered via the new Just-In-Time Desktop Administrative Supply System. The Web-based ordering system allows approved representatives to electronically order supplies. Ordering office supplies through the NASA On-Line Supply Catalog is no longer available. For more information, call 544-0363.

Purchase tickets to Carolyn Griner's retirement reception through admin officers