NASA Online Registration System now available

The NASA Online Registration System (NORS) is now available for Marshall team members. Any previous AdminSTAR shortcuts on computers should be deleted. The new system includes a "Single Sign-On" page, which eliminates the use of Social Security numbers and allows employees to set up one account and password to access both the NORS and SOLAR training sites. For more information, including tutorials, go to "Inside Marshall."

All ODIN-controlled MSFC Exchange-based e-mail servers unavailable noon-10 p.m. Saturday. See 'Inside Marshall'
