NASA Fellowship Program applications available

The NASA Administrator's Fellowship Program is accepting applications through March 19. The program is designed to enhance relations between NASA and historically black colleges and other minority institutions. NASA employees at the GS-13 level or above are encouraged to apply and must hold a master's or doctorate degree. The 18-22 month program allows NASA employees to teach or conduct research at a minority institution for one year and participate in other opportunities for the remainder of the fellowship. For details, call 544-3740 or 544-7527.
