

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, January 14

1997

Tomorrow is Deadline to Vote In NASA Exchange Elections

The deadline for Marshall employees to vote for candidates to fill two NASA Exchange executive positions is close of business tomorrow. Candidates are Brian Key, Cathy Nichelson, Helen Stinson and May Wales. Ballots are available in the Exchange office, Bldg. 4752.

Ed Henke retirement reception
4:30 - 6:30 p.m.
Thurs. in Bldg.
4203 cafeteria

MARS Ballroom Dance Club To Sponsor Valentine Dance

The MARS Ballroom Dance Club will sponsor a Valentine dinner and dance 6:30 p.m. - 11 p.m. Feb. 15 at the Von Braun Civic Center. The semi-formal will feature a buffet dinner and ballroom music by the Little Big Band. Tickets are $18 and may be purchased from Tamara Landers, 4-6818; Pat Sage, 4-5427; Ron Brock, 4-0768; Ed Ogozalek, 837-1486; or Bob Williams 4-3998. To reserve a table for eight, contact Landers.

Laundry and Dry Cleaning Services Now Available at Marshall Center

Laundry and dry cleaning services are now being offered at the Center. Employees and contractors may drop off laundry, dry cleaning, shoes for repair or clothing needing alterations, 7 a.m. - 5 p.m. in the basement of Bldg. 4200, Room G37.