

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, January 31

1997

Associate Administrator and Center Directors Visit Marshall Fri.

NASA Associate Administrator for Aeronautics Dr. Robert Whitehead is visiting Marshall Friday for an overview of Center programs and tour. He is accompanied by Langley Center Director Dr. Jeremiah F. Creedon, Lewis Center Director Donald J. Campbell, Ames Center Director Henry McDonald and Dryden Center Director Kenneth Szalai.

Buyout Window Extended to Close of Business Mon.

Laundry and Dry Cleaning Service Now Open 7 a.m. - 5 p.m., Bldg. 4200, Room G37

NASA Managers Set Feb. 11 Launch Date for STS-82

Following a flight readiness review Thursday, NASA Managers set Feb. 11 as the launch date for Space Shuttle Discovery. STS-82 will be the second Hubble Space Telescope servicing mission. During the mission four spacewalks will be conducted to replace components of the telescope.

Exchange Closes Out Nut Sale

The Marshall Exchange Nut Sale ends Friday. Several varieties are still available and prices have been discounted. English walnuts are $4 a lb.; pistachios, $3.90 a lb.; and hickory smoked almonds, $4.55 a lb. Nuts may be purchased in the Exchange Office, Bldg. 4752.