

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, January 7

1997

Space Shuttle Atlantis Set to Launch at 3:27 a.m. Sunday

Launch of the Space Shuttle Atlantis has been set for 3:27 a.m. CST Sunday, from KSC. NASA managers announced the launch date and time following a flight readiness review Monday. The scheduled 10-day mission will mark the fifth Shuttle-Mir docking mission.

McMillion retirement reception, 3:30 - 5:30 p.m. Thurs., in Bldg. 4203 cafeteria

Exchange Now Offering Some Nuts at Discounted Prices

The Marshall Exchange nut sale continues and select nuts have been discounted. Hickory smoked almonds are now $4.10; English walnuts, $3.75 per lb.; and pistachios, $3.65 per lb. Pecan halves are still available for $4.85 per lb. Nuts may be purchased 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. in the Exchange office, Bldg. 4752.