

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, January 8

1998

Buyout Window Ends Feb. 3; Early Out Extended to Mar. 31

The window to apply for the separation incentive ends Feb. 3, while the early out option has been extended to Mar. 31. The Personnel Office strongly encourages interested employees to apply well before the respective deadlines to avoid last minute processing. Applications should be submitted to Edwina Bressette, CM41, in Bldg. 4200, room 328C, or faxed to 4-5158.

Open Season for Thrift Savings Plan Under Way Until Jan. 31

Continual Learning Channels to Air on Marshall Cable Next Week

Marshall Cable television will begin broadcasting two Continual Learning Channels, developed by the Employee and Organizational Development office, beginning Jan. 12. Channel 13 will air continuous tape playbacks highlighting the five core competencies for Marshall employees, while channel 14 will feature live, interactive seminars. Each channel will air a daily television schedule, and a website is being developed that will feature the monthly television schedule.