

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Monday, July 17

2000

Campbell, Wright-Patterson officials visit Marshall Monday

Donald Campbell, director of Glenn Research Center in Cleveland, and officials from Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio will visit Marshall Monday. The group will receive overview briefings on various Marshall programs and tour the Propulsion Research Center.

Bus schedule to Monday's Joint Propulsion Conference on 'Inside Marshall'

Information Technology Security briefing 1 p.m. Wed., Morris Auditorium

Florida Tech offers computer systems master's program

The Florida Institute of Technology is holding an information session on its computer information systems master's program from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. Tuesday at Redstone's Sparkman Center, Bldg. 5304, room 4364. Florida Tech also provides a computer network certificate program. For information, call 881-7878

Hazardous, controlled waste generator training Thursday

Training for all civil servants and contractors involved in generation and accumulation of hazardous and controlled waste will be from 9-11 a.m. Thursday in Morris auditorium. Personnel designated as a point of contact or alternate for hazardous and/or controlled waste accumulation sites are required to attend this training annually. For more information, call John Troy at 544-4787.

Marshall Assoc. lunch, 11:30 a.m. Thurs., Bldg. 4203 cafeteria. Call 544-6340