

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, July 15

1998

---

Marshall Picnic Set for Aug. 22 at The U.S. Space & Rocket Center

This year's Marshall Center Picnic, being held 4-9 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 22 at the U.S. Space & Rocket Center, will bring an array of exciting activities for Center employees, on-site contractors and retirees. Museum admission is free to picnic attendees during those hours. More information is on the "Inside Marshall" page under "Headlines" or by typing picnic98 in your browser.

---

Program on X-33 On Discovery Channel, 6 a.m., Thurs.

---

Retirement Planning Seminar Set for Noon-12:45 p.m. Thurs. in Morris Auditorium

---

Public Inquiries Office Relocates Today to Bldg. 4203, Room 1109

The Public Inquiries Office, formerly located in Room 101, Bldg. 4200 moves today to Room 1109, Bldg. 4203. The new location which adjoins the American Express Travel Office, will provide the same materials — NASA Fact Sheets, posters and lithographs — as it did in the old location. Due to the move full services will not be available until Monday, July 20.

Contact: 4-3037

---

Agency Business Cards Available Through NASA Exchange

The NASA Exchange offers 500 two-color cards for $20.50; 1,000 two-color cards for $21.50; 500 three-color cards for $40.50 and 1,000 three-color cards for $41.50. The two-color card has the vector logo and blue printing and the three-color card includes the vector logo with black printing. Five format styles are available.

Contact: 4-7564