

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, June 2

2000

Register now for 'Take Our Children to Work Day'

Parents interested in bringing their children (grades 3-12) to work for "Take Our Children to Work Day" on June 22 should register on "Inside Marshall." Registering ensures lunch for you and your child, and a badge that can be picked up at the Bldg. 4200 lobby security desk. For more information, call Billie Swinford, 544-0087.

NPG: 7120.5A
Implementation
course, 8:30 a.m.,
June 22, Bldg. 4200,
room G21

NASA-sponsored Depression
Screening Hotline,
1-800-449-8605

NASA Materials Science Conference set June 6-8

The NASA Materials Science Conference will be held Tuesday through Thursday at the Von Braun Center in Huntsville. It will provide a review of NASA activities, discuss long-term goals and highlight new research areas for materials science researchers. Registration is $100. Register online at: <http://www.ssl.msfc.nasa.gov/colloquia/mmsm/registration.html>. For more information, call Narayanan Ramachandran at 544-8308.

Register via AdminSTAR for cultural diversity classes

Cultural Diversity Leadership Program classes will be June 28-29; July 19-20; and Sept. 20-21. Civil servants should register via AdminSTAR.

Marshall's annual retiree dinner
Aug. 17 at Von
Braun Center