

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, June 7

2001

Marshall contractors get small business of year nod

Four Marshall contractors were nominated as Small Businesses of the Year at the 2001 Small Business Celebration kickoff breakfast Tuesday. ERC Inc., Pace and Waite Inc., Qualis Corp., and System Studies and Simulation Inc. were named among the 32 nominated businesses. A winner will be announced at the June 14 Small Business of the Year Celebration dinner. Tickets — at $35 each — are available from Rosa Kilpatrick. Call 544-0042.

Marshall welcomes Joe Rothenberg and Mal Peterson

NASA drop-by spot bid sale
9 a.m.-2 p.m.
Tues., Intergraph Bldg. 21

Team Redstone exhibit opens June 14 at S&RC

The exhibit, "Team Redstone — Supporting the Army Transformation," opens June 14 at the U.S. Space & Rocket Center (S&RC). A ribbon-cutting ceremony will be held at 1:30 p.m. The exhibit opens at 2:30 p.m. The permanent exhibit includes full-size and scale models of approximately 50 artifacts, including missiles and weapons systems, helicopters, fixed-wing aircraft and related hardware.

Save for your future.
Buy bonds through payroll deduction