

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, June 12

1998

Marshall Team to Receive Award for Space Shuttle External Tank

Marshall will be honored by the American Welding Society 10 a.m. Tuesday at the U.S. Space & Rocket Center for its Space Shuttle external tank development. Parker Counts, manager of Marshall's External Tank project, will accept the award for the Marshall team. The Historical Welded Structure Award will recognize Marshall's advanced technology and high quality of welding used in construction of the external tank from the propulsion test article.

Physics Seminar Series to Air June 15-30 on MSFC TV Ch. 14

Discovery Set to Land 1 p.m. CDT Fri., Completing Mission STS-91

The orbiter Discovery is scheduled to land at 1 p.m. CDT Friday at Kennedy Space Center. The three Marshall-managed microgravity science experiments, launched June 2, will return as part of the 10-day mission STS-91.

Blue Cross/Blue Shield Rep. to Visit Center 9-11 a.m. Tues.

A Blue Cross/Blue Shield federal representative will be at Marshall Center from 9-11 a.m. Tuesday in Bldg. 4200, room 324. Employees with questions or claim concerns are encouraged to attend.