NASA Grant to Help Grow New Technology-Based Businesses

NASA will grant an additional $435,000 to the Business Technology Development Center, Inc. of Huntsville, also known as BizTech, to help grow new technology-based businesses. BizTech, a not-for-profit business incubator, supports and nurtures young, small businesses through their vulnerable years. Marshall's Technology Transfer Office has helped fund BizTech since 1997, with NASA's grant contributions totaling $735,000.
