

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, June 5

1998

Sen. Sessions' Chief of Staff Visits Friday for Center Programs Update

Armand DeKeyser, Sen. Sessions' Chief of Staff, will meet with Marshall managers at noon Friday for a working lunch. DeKeyser will be presented with updates on current Center programs. Discussion topics include Marshall's Space Transportation Program, microgravity research, Neutral Buoyancy Simulator, Atlas IIAR testing and Magnum Lifter.

AFGE Local 3434
Mtg. at 11:30 a.m.
Tues., June 9 in
Bldg. 4200, Room
P-106

Deadline for 'Take Our Children to Work Day' is June 10

Rothenberg to Speak at Honors Ceremony Set for Tues., June 9

NASA Associate Administrator for Space Flight will be the keynote speaker at Marshall's annual honors ceremony set for 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. June 9 in Morris Auditorium. Awards will be presented to civil service employees and contractors who have made exceptional contributions to the Center's mission and the nation's space program.