

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, March 16

2000

Cultural diversity classes available through AdminSTAR

Cultural Diversity Leadership Program classes have been scheduled for March 22-23; April 26-27; May 24-25; June 28-29; July 19-20; and Sept. 20-21. The workshop will discuss the importance of creating and maintaining an environment where everyone has the opportunity, tools and support to work to their full potential while accomplishing the organization's mission. Civil servants should register via AdminSTAR.

NASA budget hearings live on Centerwide TV, noon-3 p.m., Thursday

Fireside chat, 'Army Years: 1950-1960,' 7 p.m. Thurs., UAH

Vote for 'lonely mascot' online, or various Marshall locations

Cast ballots in the "lonely mascot" contest on the "Inside Marshall" Web site. For employees without computers, vote in the cafeterias in Bldgs. 4203, 4610 and 4471; outside Charlie's Grill in Bldg. 4200; or Bldgs. 4561 and 4674. The contest ends March 22. Winners will be announced March 24.

In this week's Marshall Star:

- NASA releases reports on Mars Orbiter and "Faster, Better, Cheaper"
- Scientists reveal findings of microgravity experiments flown on Glenn mission
- Marshall team develops new welding technique

Property accountability builds organizational effectiveness