

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

March 25

1999

Nominate environmentalists for Earth Day awards

The "Spot an Environmentalist" activity encourages Marshall employees and on-site contractors to do their part in keeping Marshall environmentally friendly. If you observe an employee helping to keep Marshall environmentally friendly, please submit the employee's name with a short justification of the environmental deed via e-mail to lucy.boger@msfc.nasa.gov or mail to AB11, Bldg. 4250, room 16B, no later than April 8. Ten nominees will be awarded a gift certificate from "Wild Birds Unlimited" at the tree planting ceremony April 23 at 10 a.m., outside Bldg. 4650.

Centerwide TV
showing 'Space
Exploration at the Millennium: In Remembrance of Carl Sagan'
Thursday, 9 a.m.

Volunteers needed In this week's Marshall Star:

for Panoply, Huntsville's
Festival of Arts.
Sign up on 'Inside
Marshall' at [inside.msfc.nasa.gov/
INSIDE/panoply/volunteer.html](http://inside.msfc.nasa.gov/INSIDE/panoply/volunteer.html)

- Marshall boosts Alabama's economy
- New Space & Rocket Center access policy
- New Flight Projects Directorate
- Redstone officials honor crash victims