

Daily Planet

Customer and Employee Relations Directorate,
Internal Relations and Communications Department

Monday, March 15

2004

Return to Flight update online

NASA has released an update to its Return to Flight plan. The update is on implementing recommendations from the Columbia Accident Investigation Board, where applicable, to the International Space Station program. To read the update, go to <http://www.nasa.gov/news/highlights/returntoflight.html>.

Marshall Exchange Book Fair, Tuesday-Friday, 8 a.m.-3 p.m., Bldg. 4203 lobby

Registration for Southeastern Software Engineering Conference, March 29-31 in Huntsville, at <http://www.ndia-tvc.org/SESEC/>

Griner to speak at Women's History Month event Tuesday

Carolyn Griner will speak Tuesday during a program at the Marshall Center commemorating Women's History Month. The event is from 8:30-10 a.m. in Bldg. 4200, Room P-110. This year's theme is "Women -- Inspiring Hope and Possibility." Griner is a former deputy director of the Marshall Center and currently is principal for Booz Allen Hamilton, a management and technology consulting company based in McLean, Va. All Marshall team members are invited. For details, see "Inside Marshall."

Motorcycle, vehicle safety film on Centerwide TV at Marshall

A film stressing the need for drivers to be more alert for motorcyclists during springtime months will be on Centerwide TV at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Tuesday-Thursday. "A Common Road" illustrates how to be a more observant driver.

Ergonomic evaluations, tips at <http://health.msfc.nasa.gov/gov/environ.html>

<http://inside.msfc.nasa.gov>