NASA supporting IMAX film with Tom Hanks, Lockheed

The IMAX Corp., in association with Academy Award-winning actor Tom Hanks and Lockheed Martin Corp., will produce "Magnificent Desolation," a 3-D film that will allow viewers to walk side-by-side with Apollo astronauts on the Moon. NASA is collaborating on the film. "We believe 'Magnificent Desolation' is a wonderful opportunity to capture the interest of the next generation of explorers," said Glenn Mahone, NASA's assistant administrator for Public Affairs.
