

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, May 13

1999

Compactor Facility now accepting cardboard boxes

The Compactor Facility now accepts cardboard boxes for recycling. Anyone may place loose cardboard in the storage cage, but operational functions of the compactor are the responsibility of the contractor, Creative Management Technology Inc. The contractor also will collect loose cardboard in office areas for recycling at the Compactor Facility. The facility is located in the M-2 Yard next to the KAMAG shelter. For more information, call Lane Pugh at 544-4803 or Lucy Boger at 544-0320.

NASA Alumni League meeting, Friday, 8:30 a.m.-noon, Bldg. 4200, room P110

Relay for Life, Friday, 7p.m.-7 a.m., Milton Frank Stadium, Huntsville

Section of Mercury Road closing for pipe installation

The section of Mercury Road from the east end of the Bldg. 4485 parking lot to the Bldg. 4471 west parking area will be closed Friday, 6 p.m.-Monday 6 a.m. for work on the installation of chilled water pipe for the new central chiller plant.

In this week's Marshall Star:

- Center deputy director says employee input vital to long-term success
- New policy tightens gate security at Redstone
- X-33 completes hydrogen oxygen tank testing

May is Asian Pacific American Heritage Month