

Daily Planet

Customer and Employee Relations Directorate,
Internal Relations and Communications Department

Tuesday, Nov. 20

2001

Farewell reception for Joe Rothenberg Tuesday

The Marshall Center is honoring Joe Rothenberg, NASA's associate administrator for Space Flight, with a farewell reception from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the U.S. Space & Rocket Center. Tickets — at $8 each — are available from administrative officers or by calling Pat Fuller at 544-9171 or Sandy Such at 544-1928.

November is Native American Heritage Month

For a list of training opportunities, visit 'Inside Marshall'

Space Station experiments exceed 50,000 hours of operation

International Space Station experiments ranging from biology and human physiology to materials processing and education passed an estimated 50,000 hours of payload operating time last week, as Expedition Three nears its end later this month. Space Station science experiments and payload operations are managed by the Payload Operations Center at the Marshall Center. For details, visit the Web at: <http://scipoc.msfc.nasa.gov>

Health benefits open season continues through Dec. 10

The Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) Open Season continues through Dec. 10. Employees may enroll, change plans or change from self only to family coverage. For details, call Debbie Allen at 544-7536.

Energy tip: Turn off computers when not in use

<http://inside.msfc.nasa.gov>