Endeavour to launch Thursday

Space Shuttle Endeavour is set to launch at 6:41 p.m. CST Thursday from Kennedy Space Center in Florida. The mission will take a fourth crew to the International Space Station. Endeavour also will carry the Marshall-managed, Italian-built logistics module named Raffaello to the station loaded with supplies and experiments. One space walk is planned to add insulation to mechanisms that rotate the station's solar arrays. Endeavour is planned to land Dec. 10 at the Kennedy Space Center.
