

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, November 10

1999

OPM offers advice about savings, financial planning

A satellite broadcast, "How Savings Must Be a Part of Your Financial Future," will be aired from noon-1 p.m. Wednesday on all CCTV monitors (Channel 3). This broadcast is sponsored by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) and offers some sound advice about savings as a part of your future financial planning and retirement.

Due to Veterans Day holiday, the 'Marshall Star' will be delivered Friday

Safety shoe van here 8 a.m.-2 p.m. Wed., southwest end of Bldg. 4471

Marshall employees build float for Veterans Day Parade

The Veterans Day Parade Thursday through downtown Huntsville will feature a float built by Marshall employees. The parade starts at 11 a.m. at the Huntsville Hilton. Marshall employees and contractors are encouraged to attend the parade to salute the nation's veterans.

Seats still available for cultural diversity training

There are still spaces open in the Nov. 17-18 session of the Cultural Diversity Leadership Program. Civil service personnel are encouraged to participate. Employees interested in attending should enroll via AdminSTAR, where course details also are available.

Purchase tickets to Rick Bachtel's Dec. 9 retirement reception from admin officers