

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, Oct. 26

2000

Shuttle Structures Working Group visits Marshall

Members of the Shuttle Structures Working Group are visiting Marshall this week. On Thursday, the group will tour the Payload Operations Integration Facility, the Structural and Dynamics Test Facility and the Space Station mock-up.

Flu shots noon-3 p.m. Thursday, Bldg. 4200, room G13D

Great Paper Airplane Contest Nov. 3, Bldg. 4752. Call 961-4002

American Education Week luncheon set Nov. 13

The Huntsville/Madison County American Education Week luncheon will be at 11 a.m. Nov. 13 at the Huntsville Hilton. Dr. Richard G. Carpenter, president of Calhoun Community College, will speak. Tickets are $15. Make reservations by calling Jane McBay at 544-8800 no later than Monday.

Senior design projects wanted

Marshall's Education Programs Department is working with senior engineering design classes at the University of Alabama in Birmingham and the Rochester Institute of Technology in New York. Students are interested in collaborating with a Marshall department or group in defining projects for their design course, culminating in a prototype. If interested, send an e-mail to: frank.brannon@msfc.nasa.gov

Volunteers needed for Black History Month committee. Call James Bailey at 544-2523