

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Monday, October 19

1998

Hazard Communication Training scheduled for Nov. 9, 10 and 12

Employees who routinely work with hazardous chemicals are required to attend Hazard Communication Training. Classes will be held for civil service and on-site contractors Nov. 9, 10 and 12 in Bldg. 4200, room G-13. Classes will be offered at the following times each day: 7:30-8:30 a.m., 9-10 a.m., 12:30-1:30 p.m. and 2-3 p.m. The registration deadline is Tuesday, Nov. 3. Contact: David Thaxton by e-mail or at 4-8371 with first and second choices of preferred date and time to attend.

All hands meeting Tues.

Center Director Art Stephenson will address employees at an all hands meeting at 9 a.m. Tuesday in Morris Auditorium.

Washington Update Luncheon with Sen. Sessions, Noon Mon. at VBC

Marshall Exchange announces plans for this year's nut sale

The Marshall Exchange annual nut sale will soon be under way. This year, the Exchange will be selling pecan halves, chocolate pecans, three types of almonds, pistachios, English walnuts and raw peanuts. The sale will begin prior to Thanksgiving. Nuts will be on sale in Bldg. 4752 on a first-come first-served basis to employees, retirees and on-site contractors. More information on pricing and delivery will be available soon.

Bldg. 4200 handicap parking spaces closed temporarily

Twelve handicap parking spaces on the south side of Bldg. 4200 are closed due to construction. Service vehicle parking spaces in the south parking lot of Bldg. 4201 will serve as temporary handicap parking. Construction is expected to take about one week. Contact: Nelson Olinger, 4-0055