

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, October 28

1998

---

Air War College International officers visit here Wednesday

The 1998 Officer's class of the U.S. Air Force Air War College is visiting the Marshall Center Wednesday. The officers, representing 41 countries, are led by Lt. Col. Jeff Kaloostian, director for International Officers Affairs at the Air War College. After an overview of Marshall programs, the group will tour Center facilities.

---

AIAA Defense and Civil Space Conference at VBC continues through Oct. 30

---

Free flu shots for on-site personnel, 2:30-4:30 p.m. Thurs. at Medical Ctr.

---

Employee contributions to CFC total $290,605 after three weeks

After three weeks, employee contributions to the 1998 Combined Federal Campaign total $290,605, with the average gift per person being $214.78. The Center's goal for this year's CFC campaign is $432,420.

---

Center employees must reserve seats for 'Capitol Steps' Friday

Center employees and on-site contractors interested in attending the comedy troupe Capitol Steps' visit Friday at Marshall must reserve seats prior to the visit. Their Marshall Center appearance is free and open to the public, but seating is limited. The Capitol Steps, a troupe of former congressional staffers turned comedians, will appear from 4-5 p.m. in Morris Auditorium.
Contact: Rosa Kilpatrick, 4-0042