Mir Spacewalk Briefing, Coverage to Air on NASA TV

A planned external spacewalk by Mir 24 Commander Anatoly Solovyev, and possibly U.S. astronaut Mike Foale, will be the subject of a news briefing to air at 11:30 a.m. CDT Thursday on NASA TV. The spacewalk, currently scheduled to begin at approximately 7:55 p.m. CDT Friday, will be conducted to inspect the damaged Spektr module of the space station. It will be broadcast on NASA TV, followed by Russian and NASA post-spacewalk news conferences early Saturday morning.
